9 – PROGRESSIVE PRIDE FLAG

Created March 2023

This artwork is an abstract interpretation of the Progressive Pride Flag. It was created by prominent street artist Jacob Yikes, his daughter Jet Ryan, and Guy Ellis aka Dcypher, and installed by the Oi YOU! crew led by Paul Walters of Identity Signs. The Progressive Pride Flag celebrates the diversity of the LGBTTOIA+ community and is a visible call for a more inclusive society.

CHRISTCHURCH AIRPORT

1 – CANTERBURY MURAL

Created May 2018

We love being able to ski, mountain bike, surf, swim and so much more, all within two hours of Christchurch. This awesome mural celebrates this and sums up the city to a tee. Did you know it's 35 metres long and took Dcypher and the Oi YOU! crew almost 500 hours to complete?

2 – CANTERBURY PLANES GIANT PUZZLE

Created September 2018

Move the puzzle pieces around to make two different images, inspired by our beautiful South Island landscape. Conceptualised and curated by the Oi YOU! team, artwork by Australian artist Emmanuel Moore.

3 – PEOPLE OF THE AIRPORT

Created October 2018

What do a firefighter, a farmer, an All Black, a police officer, a pilot, a backpacker and a tradie all have in common? They're all bollard characters at Christchurch Airport! The team at Oi YOU! and Kiwi designer Greg Straight Art & Design came up with the theme 'People of our airport', with each bollard taking 11 hours to hand paint as a unique character (with help from Paul Walters at Identity Signs).

4 – ORANGE-FRONTED PARAKEET MURAL

Created April 2019

Kiwi artist Flox designed this mural and the nearby bench seats in partnership with the team at Oi YOU! to showcase the South Island's unique and diverse flora and fauna. Our favourite part is the Orange-fronted Parakeet/Kākāriki. It represents the conservation programme Christchurch Helicopters Ltd and Department of Conservation have teamed up on to help save New Zealand's most endangered birds.

This tuneful beauty, donated by The Vocal Collective, our own world-famous singers, moves around the airport waiting for someone to take up the invitation painted on it – "Play Me". Conceptualised by the Oi YOU! team, and created by artist and designer Paul Walters. Never a day goes by without these ivories being artfully tickled!
